

Oh, Conemaugh with spacious halls and campus bright and green,
Our fondest memories will remain with each endearing scene.

We'll ever pledge our loyalties, devoted hearts to you,

To thee, our Alma Mater, we'll ever more be true.

Hail, hail to the Red and Black,

Hail to our school with a cheer,

We give our best to Conemaugh,

Whose fellowship we hold so dear.

Dedication

We, the class of 1970, have worked together as a team since our junior high school days. Our team has been very successful, and as in any team, much of our success is due to our "captain" or dean, Mrs. Clark. This year a new dean has taken the place of Mr. Krevetski; this new member of our team is Mr. Brown. We appreciate his giving of his time and himself to help our class through its senior year. To us, Mrs. Clark has been much more than a dean is required to be. She has unselfishly helped us with our class plays, has been a counselor, leader, inspiration, and friend. She has given us her time, her guidance, and most of all, herself. She asks a lot of us but gives much more. Mrs. Clark is in a large part responsible for the achievements of our class and has planted in our class the high ideals and goals which she herself stands for. Because of what Mrs. Clark is to us and because Mr. Brown has so graciously stepped in to help us at this late stage in our high school career, we, the Class of 1970, dedicate this thirty-second edition of the CONNUMACH to our deans, Mrs. Clark and Mr. Brown.

PERSONNEL

SCHOOL BOARD: SEATED: Mr. Nevin Thomas, Secretary; Mr. George Shuman, President; Mr. Charles Salay, Vice President; Mr. Edwin E. Goddard, Treasurer. STANDING: Mr. Donald Lohr, Mr. John P. K. Miller, Mr. Robert Eppley, Mr. Vito Marone, Dr. Donald Stover.

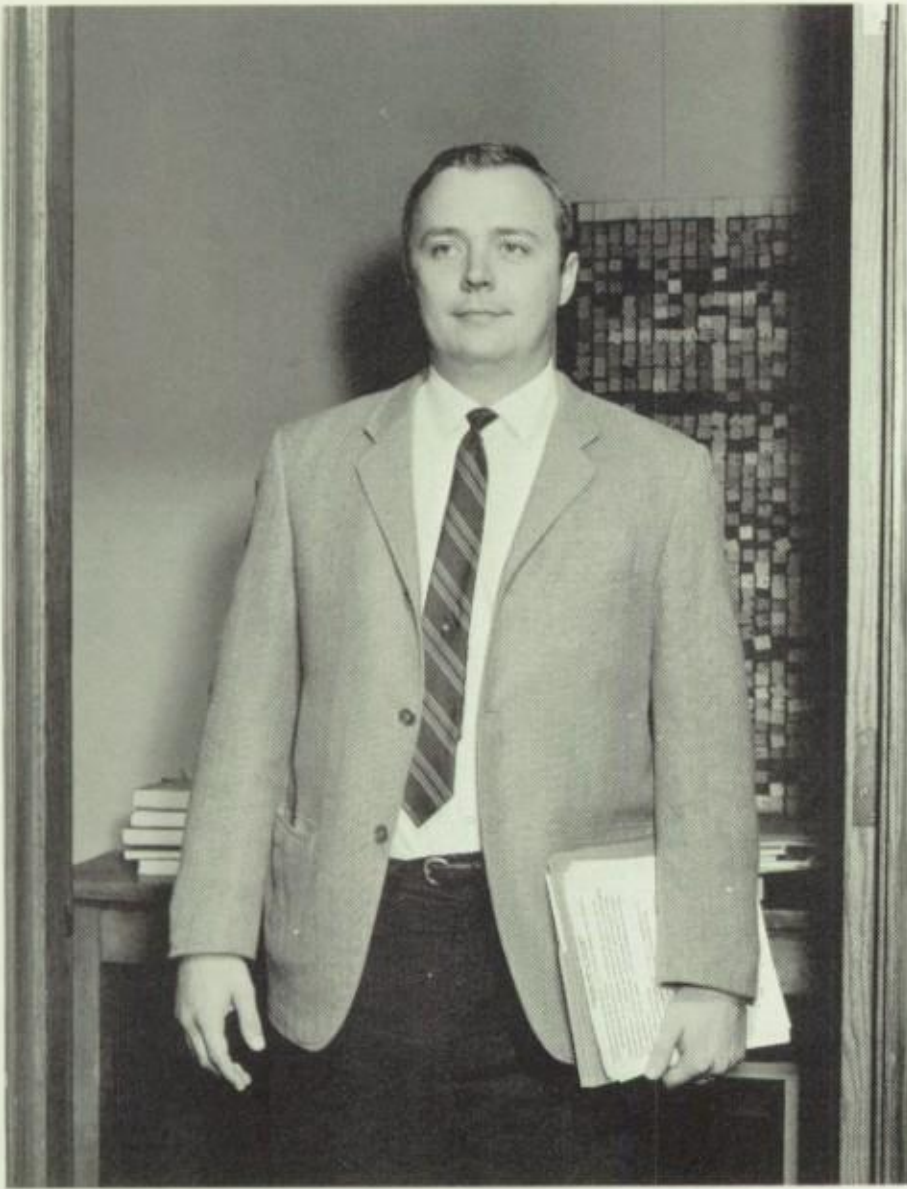

JOHN CHOBANY:

Indiana University of Pennsylvania, B.S.; University of Pittsburgh, M.Ed.; Graduate Work at University of Pittsburgh; District Superintendent.

I deeply appreciate the opportunity of sharing with you the last few years and the many accomplishments you have attained. It is my sincere hope that you have enjoyed your school years and the many experiences that you were provided. May happiness and success crown all your future efforts and may God bless you.

John Chobany,
District Superintendent

MR. JAMES L. HERDMAN:

Pennsylvania State University, B.S.; Lehigh University, M.Ed.; Graduate work at Lafayette College and Lehigh University.

To the Members of the Senior Class:

For my message to you I have chosen a statement directed to all Mankind. Entitled "Desiderata," it is dated 1692 and was found in Old St. Paul's Church, Baltimore.

"Go placidly amid the noise and the haste and learn what peace there may be in silence . . . Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others. . . . If you compare yourself with others you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.

"Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

"Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

"Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world."

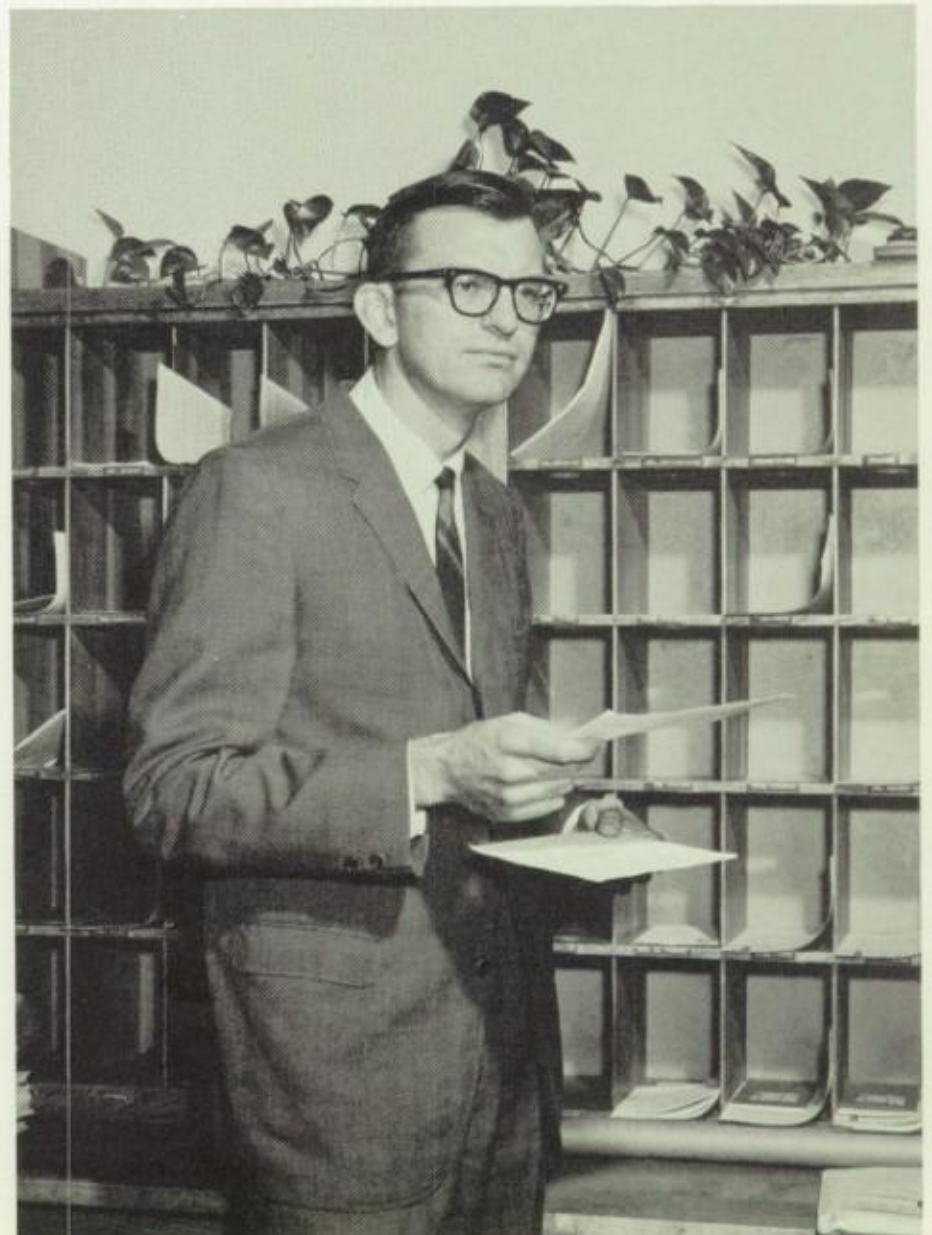

James L. Herdman,
High School Principal

ANDREW BULAZO:

Grove City College, B.A.; Kent State University, M.Ed.; Graduate work at Penn State and University of Pittsburgh.

Congratulations to you as you complete another milestone on the highway of life. To what point on this highway do you progress? Will you stop here or will you continue traveling this highway of life which at times becomes discouraging with detours and obstacles. Will you continue to the terminus which lies in a satisfying life of accomplishment and acceptance in the conquering of challenges that install roadblocks in your path? The adventures on this highway are many and exhilarating. The endeavors that you place forth must be your best. The rewards are not always evident. They lie in the self satisfaction of a job well done. Your highway of life lies stretched out before you. Full speed ahead.

Annals—Class of 1970

April, 1966

This began the history of a successful and highly unique class. Here is, in brief, "the annals of the Class of '70'".

Tuesday, October 11, 1966

An article appeared in the daily bulletin which read: Congratulations to the Class of 1970: You went over the top! This is a red letter day in the annals of a sterling class that has everything—enthusiasm, determination, drive, salesmanship, and SCHOOL SPIRIT—to burn. Our appreciation to the 9th grade homeroom teachers for their cooperation. Our hats are off to the class officers and homeroom captains who were the spark plugs of the campaign. We salute you the Class of 1970. We're proud of you and glad to be part of the team. Class deans: Mr. Krevetski, Mrs. Clark, and Mr. Drenner, Principal.

December 16, 1967

Our Christmas Dance was one of the most successful at C.T.H.S. From 8:00 to 11:00 the Senior High School danced to the music of the Kandy Kubbert and had an "enchanted" evening.

Saturday, March 29, 1969

Our Junior Class Play, "Hillbilly Weddin", was one of the biggest dramatic successes in the history of the school, both financially and in the area of attendance. The play added $500 to our treasury and there was a "standing room only" crowd.

April 2, 1969—An unusual experience.

Bomb-scare—called in to Mr. Herdman, principal, and to the local police on the night of April 1. Wednesday, April 2, was wet and bleak—rain fell steadily. Mr. Herdman, whose pet peeve is academic interruptions, herded his flock into ten buses, the concession stand, and the little shed. After an hour of bomb-shattering anticipation (?) the students disembarked and returned to classes—relieved to find the building intact and order maintained.

May 24, 1969

Our Junior-Senior Prom, another highly successful activity, was titled "Oriental Gardens" and was held at North Fork Country Club.

Friday, June 4, 1969

An article appeared in the "Contownian" that saddened the members of the Class of 1970. One of our deans, Mr. Krevetski, announced that he had accepted the position of head football coach at another high school. He had helped us with all the previously mentioned activities, including the candy sale of our Junior year which netted about $1,000. As a token of our esteem, the class presented Mr. Krevetski with a wall clock.

Class Meeting—May 1969

We contributed $200 to a medical fund established for Janet Mills, a graduate of Conemaugh Twp. High School who was critically injured in an automobile accident.

Much of our success as a class is due to the enthusiasm and leadership of our dean, Mrs. Clark. Our Senior Activities have followed in the established pattern of a sterling class who always goes over the top.

Class of 70's Connumach

Manager, Diana Mishler and Assistant Manager, Mary Helen Kapitan prepare to lead the Business Staff while Mr. Volk brings up the rear. Charge!

The Art Staff Editor, Jess McFeaters grins while his staff, Dave Sprowls and Linda Sally looks on. Dennis Wingard was absent when this picture was taken.

The Departments Staff includes Jean Stevens, JoAnn Gindlesperger, Diane Mason, Mike Gironda, Ken Green, Roberta Kaltenbaugh, and Jane Williamson. The editor is Sue Gillinger (center).

The Typing Staff, Elizabeth Dohoda, Kathy Huber, and Bonnie Bowman gather around Shirley Black, the Typing Editor. Marion Griffith, also a member of the Typing Staff was absent when this picture was taken.

Editor-in-Chief, Bill Rigo, and his Assistant, Jay Miller, discuss layout possibilities for the yearbook. The advisors, Mr. Volk, Miss Will, Mrs. Statler, and Mr. Kososki give many long hours in preparing the yearbook.

Don Baer, Sports Editor, and staff members Dan Rullo, Stanley Degory, John Marone and Rick Pipta discuss possible pictures for the yearbook.

The Copy Staff tries to supply captions for under the pictures. Editor—Anne Kelly, staff members Daria Kordell, Sherry Hersh, Frank Palinkas, Pamela Gindlesperger and John Mantini.

Brian Knight, the Contownian Editor seems to be "knee-deep" in finances.

Advisor, Mr. Paxton and editors—Exchange—Barbara Lubas; News—Christine Custer; Editor-in-Chief—Brian Knight; Sports—Robert Eppley; Typing—Sharon Pipta, and Feature—Jean Stevens—discuss the problems of publishing the weekly newspaper.

The Art Editor, Jess McFeaters, and his staff, Judy Gotwald and Gary Pipta provide unusual touches for the Contownian.

The exchange staff, Barbara Lubas and Patricia Havrilak, send the Contownian to other schools.

wnian "70"

The feature page, written by these girls, is one of the most interesting part of the newspaper.

These girls spend many long hours each week typing the Contownian.

"I really don't think we can use words like that on the news page. But then again . . ."

The sports staff supplies information on each athletic event that takes place during the week.

Keep your eyes on the ball, Bob.

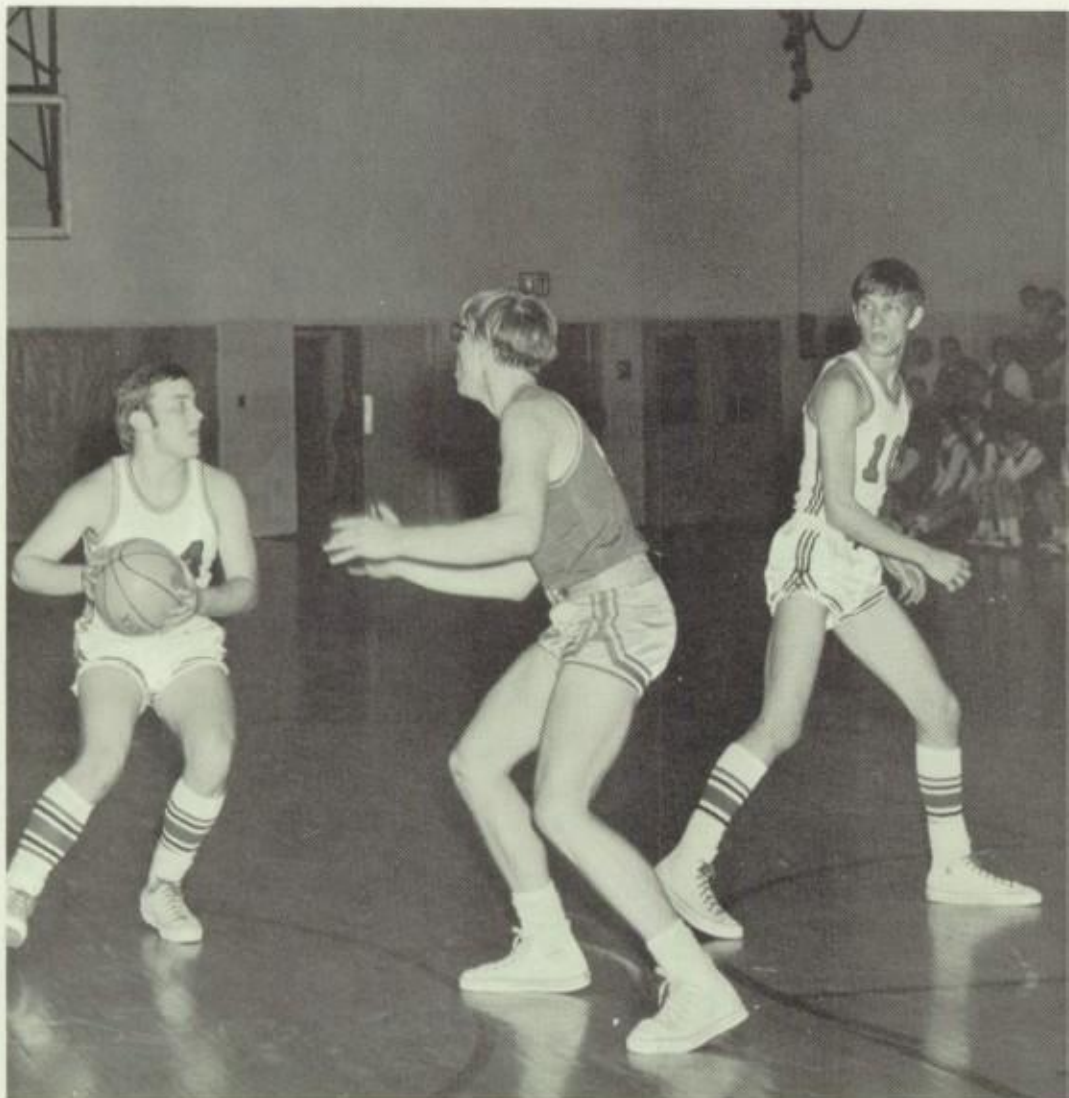

The entire Shanksville team looks on as Rick Pipta adds another two points to the Conemaugh score.

Dan and Stan bring the ball down court with only one player to stop them.

Dan Rullo practices Bob Eppley's style.

"It's your ball, Stan; I'll see you later".

The awe-struck audience watches as Dan shows them how it's done.

One of the Vikings tries to block a Rick Pipta lay-up.

District 5 165 lb. Champ, Jeff Rininger, "hangs tight" awaiting an opportunity on which to capitalize.

This opponent seems to be awaiting the end of the period.

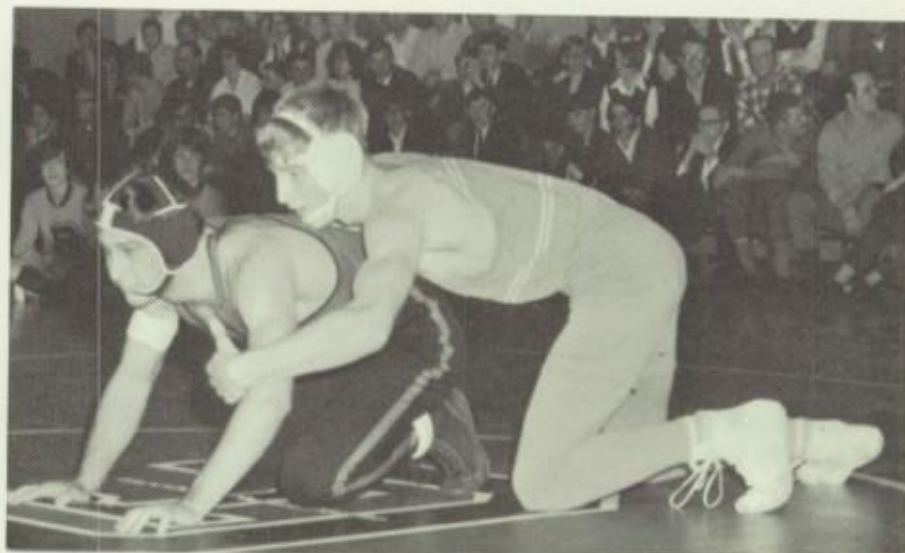

Dennis Horner proved to be a surprising bright spot throughout the season.

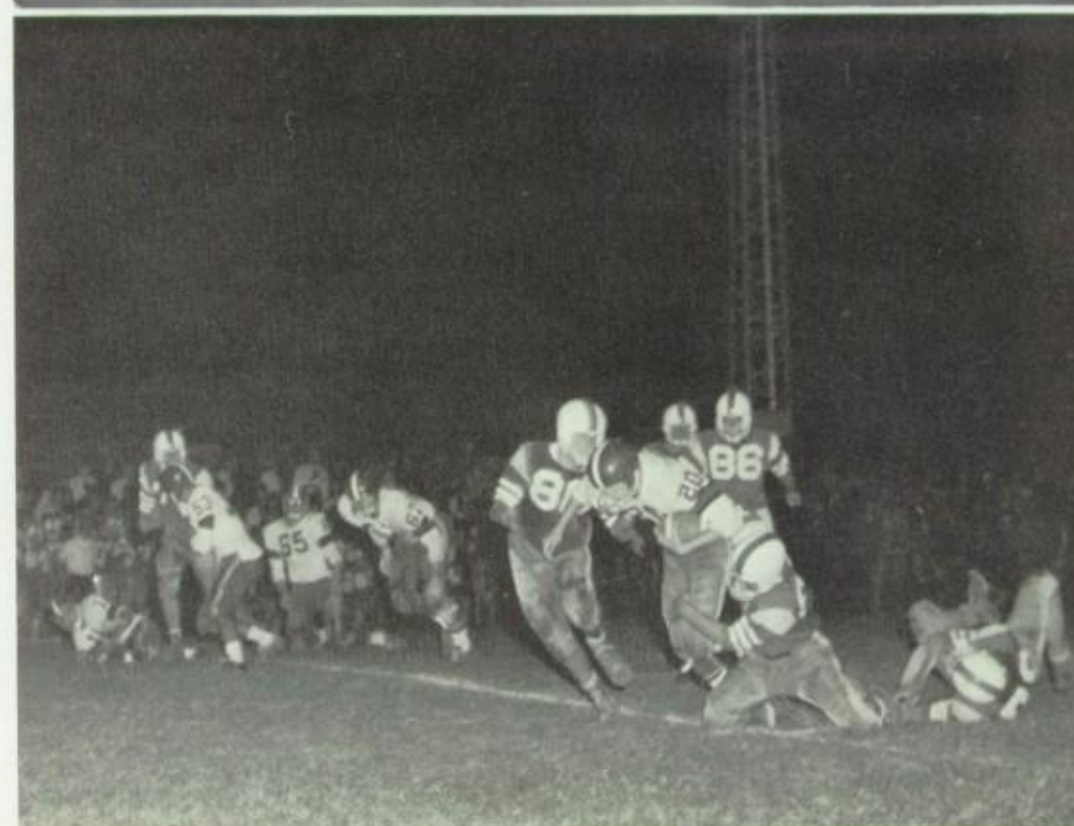

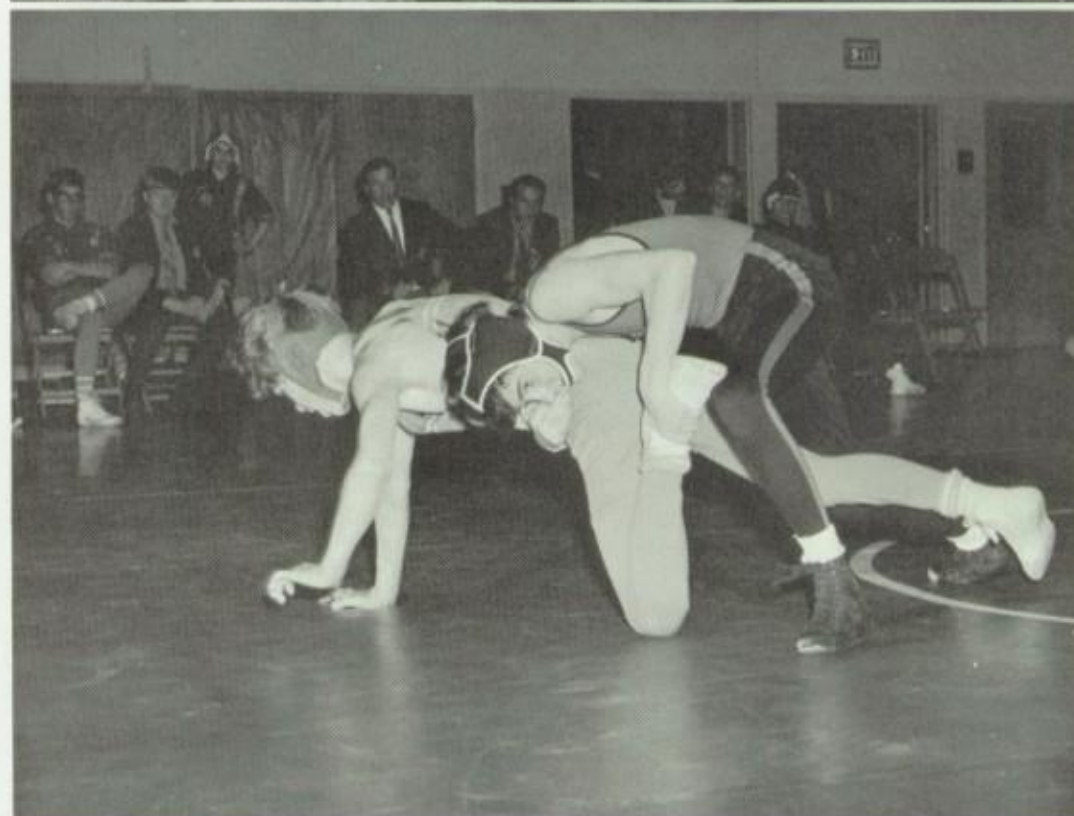

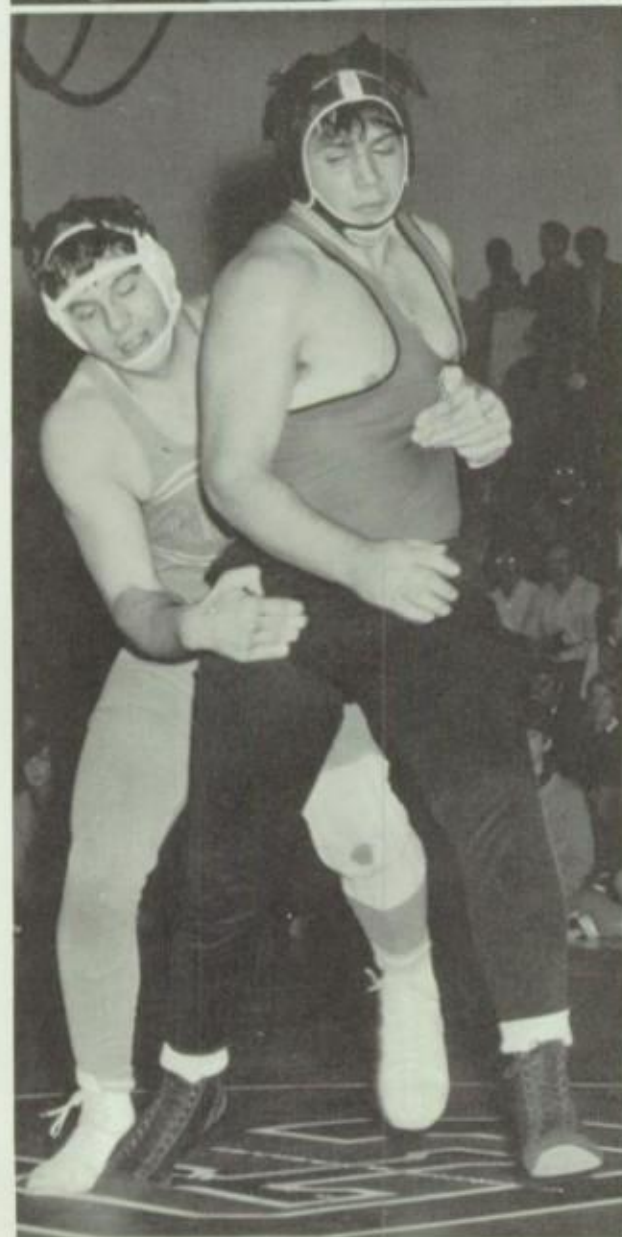

Doug just doesn't like to be on the bottom.

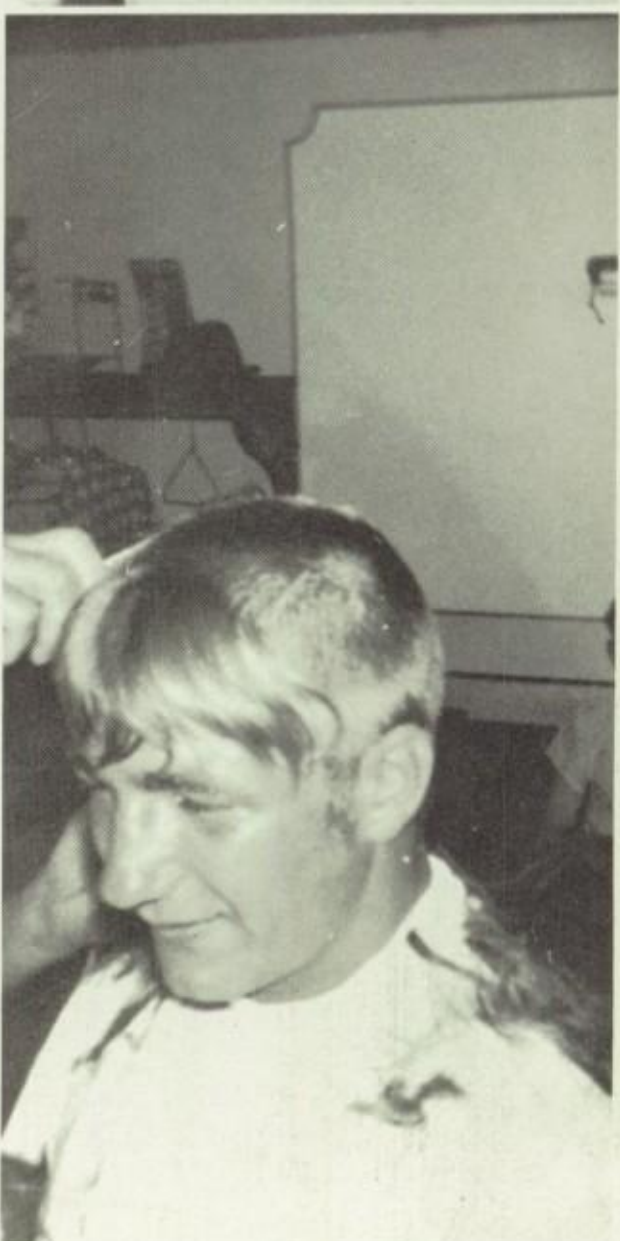

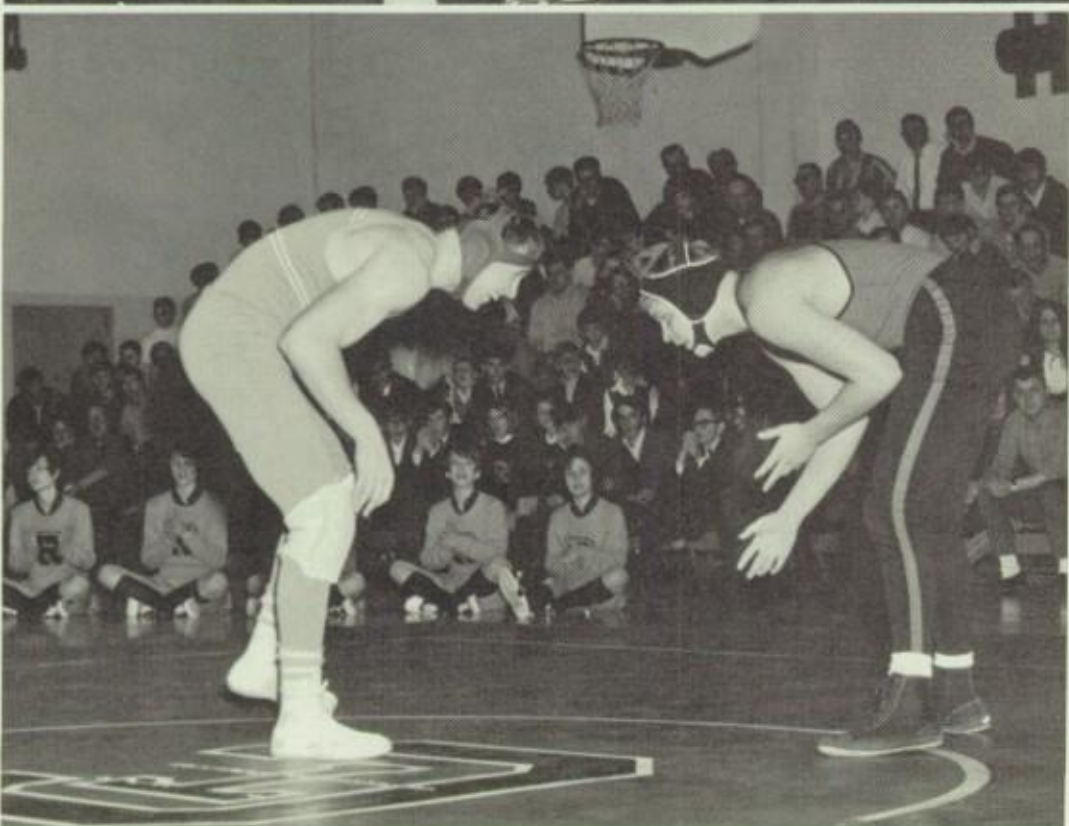

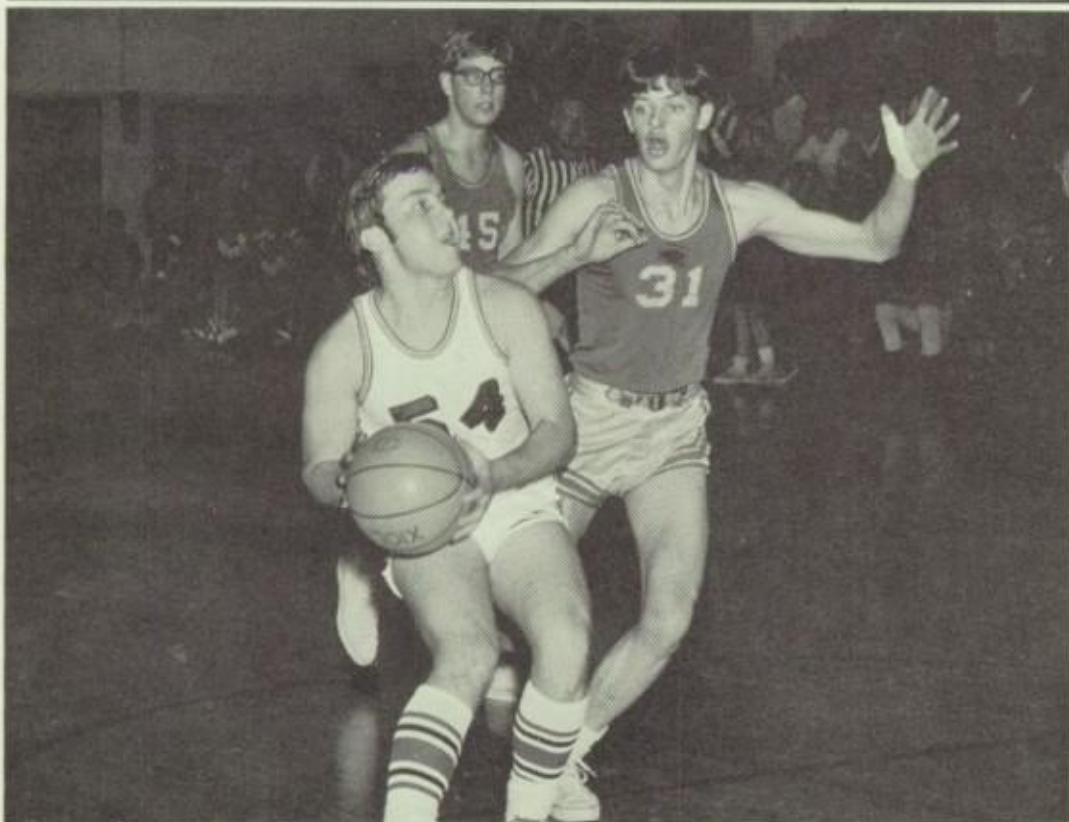

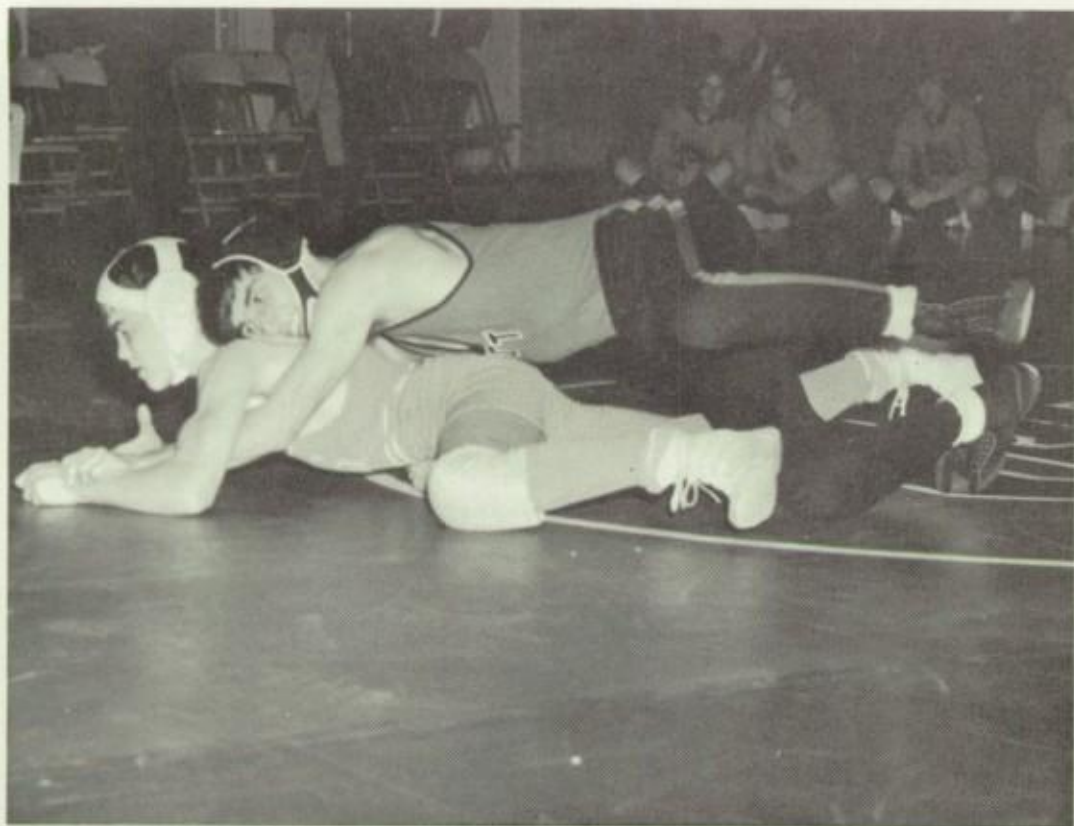

The fabulous season must be credited to Coach Feathers' expert guidance.

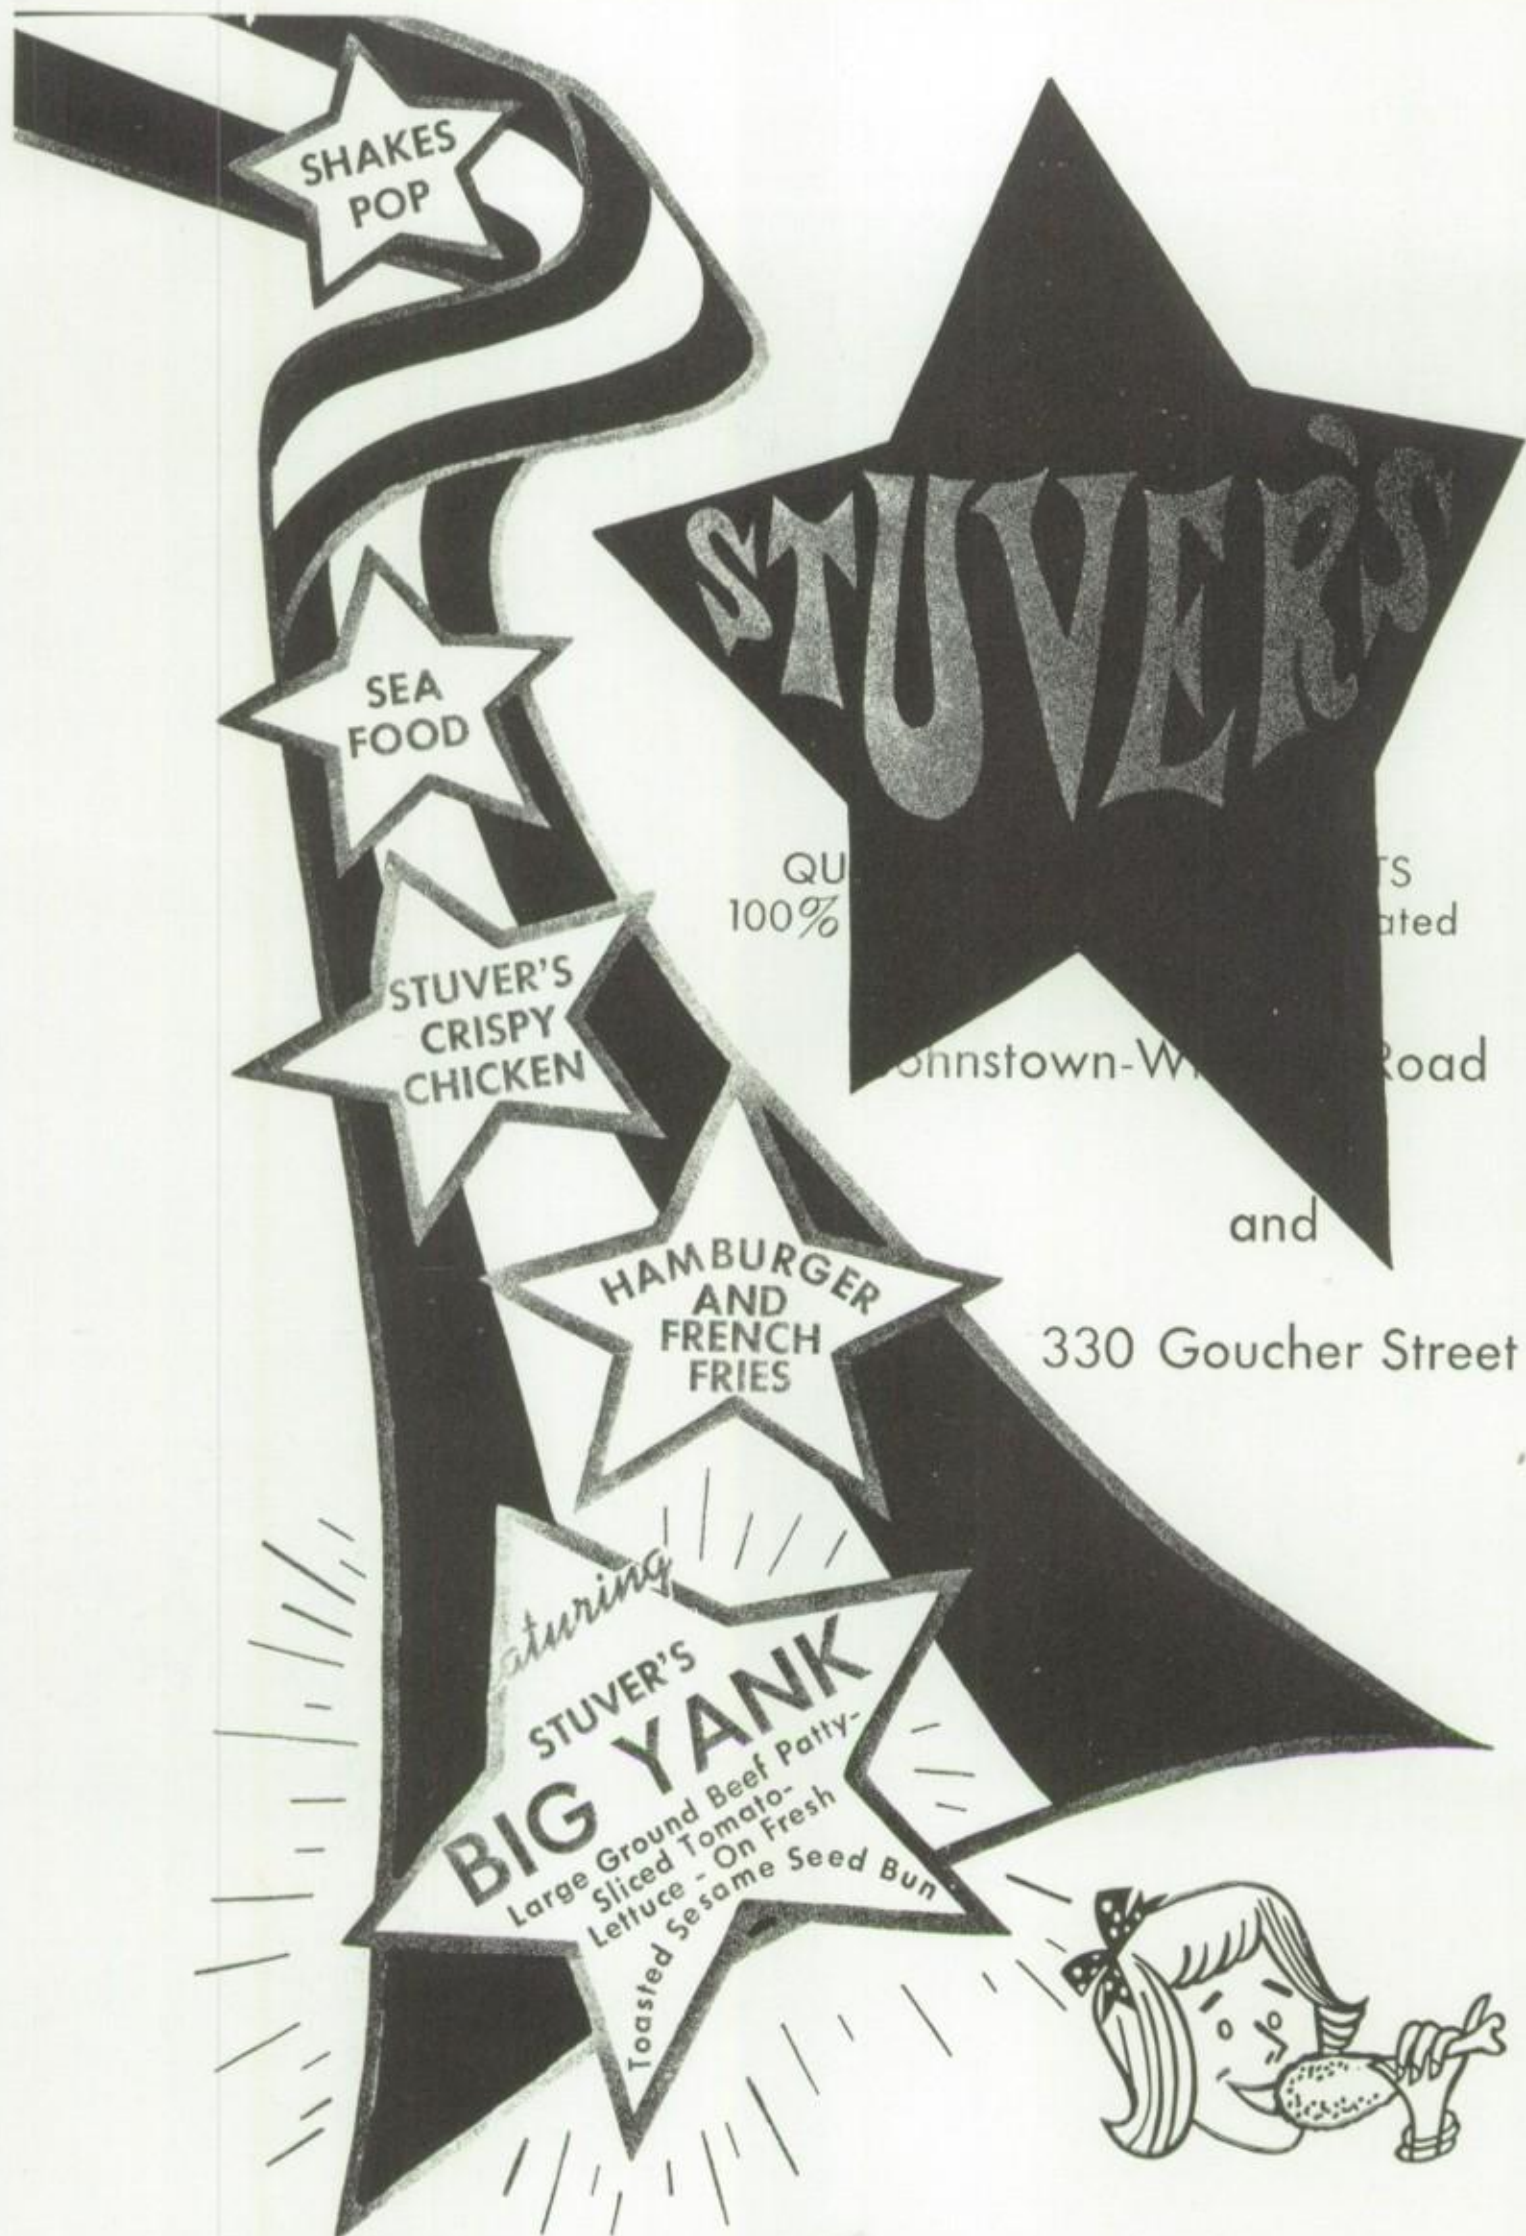

Fred Cotchen on the bottom of the "referee's position."
